

AGENDA/Composites in Transportation Infrastructure: Building for the Future

July 21, 2016

Roger Williams University School of Law (Appellate Courtroom/#283, 1 Old Ferry Road, Bristol, R.I.)

Hosted by the Composites Alliance of RI and Polaris MEP, in partnership with Senator Sheldon Whitehouse and the American Composites Manufacturers Association

8:15–9:00 AM Registration and Continental Breakfast

9:00 AM Welcome – Wendy Mackie, Composites Alliance of Rhode Island

9:05 AM Opening Remarks

- Senator Sheldon Whitehouse
- Governor Gina M. Raimondo
- Anthony Rotondo, Senior Bridge Engineer representing U.S. Department of Transportation Federal Highway Administration
- Peter Alviti, Jr., Director, Rhode Island Department of Transportation

9:30 AM Introduction to Composites in Infrastructure – John Busel, American Composites Manufacturers Association

10:00 AM Break with Refreshments

10:15AM Technical Expert Presentations

12:15 PM Group Q & A

12:30 PM Networking Lunch

1:30–3:30 PM “Pathways to Progress: Overcoming Barriers” -Discussion facilitated by Patricia Steere of Steere Engineering to determine next steps

Please Note: Agenda is subject to change. Please check back prior to July 21 to check for any refinements.